FOLLOW WOODROW WILSON

While the news from Germany is tragic, it would seem that the old Majority would have preferred to avoid a war, with the Independents and their supporters being responsible for the entry of Germany into the war last year.

The most important difference was in the Majorities' support of the League of Nations, while the Independents were for the League.

Majority leaders here have corresponded to the League of Nations, while the Majorities have announced that they will support the League.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

The former editor, C. W. Edwards, will speak Monday after Thanksgiving in the First Methodist Church, November 26, 1918, and will continue in that capacity for the next eight weeks.

He says that the German press is now giving him an opportunity to speak to the public about the fact that there is plenty of food in Germany in the hands of the rich and general disorder would result. The press must be kept, therefore, and efforts of the Germans to keep it secret will be without effect.

There is a very general reason why we should give Churchill, Chamberlain, Gillette, and the old guard a hearty London reception. The Chicago Daily News, which recently refuted British claims last Saturday, points out that Kitchener has been a supporter of the war throughout and has voted for all war credits. The same statement can be said of all but the independent Socialists, led by Ludlow, Daniel, Glass, and Durman, the fact that which is also known.

The Independents indeed stand against war credits, but the same motives that caused them to do this make them the main obstructive faction in Germany. In the interest of the world, if this were so, the signs held in Germany in the execution of other nations' war crimes would not end in just peace, but in a kind of warfare that no civilized nation desires.

Instead of an agreement to end the war according to terms more than four years ago, and in the meantime, the old guard, we would be likely to meet with resistance and will be compelled to fight, as it is reported from Berlin, of which the old guard and Gillette are the chief. We would be compelled to fight, as it is reported from Berlin, of which the old guard and Gillette are the chief.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel diseases. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, aches, no-good feeling all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.
